P.S. Excuse this letter as everything is packed away. I have left you all I have, in my will.

Again
good bye

My Dear Mother

I received your welcome letter & was very pleased to hear you are all quite well as this leaves me at present.

I had not time or I would have written sooner, for there was a great rush here to get every thing ready.
We are all ready now to move

Great Brittan start on then off but I can not tell you of their regiments surrendered to he kept a secret from at Leige yesterday + their trenches everyone. We got over 500 reserves were filled with dead up from civilian life, they came here yesterday, so that leaves you need not be worried over me for I am quite confident of coming back safe & sound. now 1100 strong. I will write to you when I get a chance I hope to be on 4 wks inside while away but it will be a month. To day I could only to say how I am on a Post have gone to the Depot in card supplied to us, we are Belfast and be there all not allowed to mention anything the time during the War but of the engagements that take place.
I wouldn't, I would sooner I think it cannot last long go and help to finish those as the Germans will starve Germans that has been a if it does in fact they are worry to us for years. I'm sorry getting it pretty hard now for Austria but we cant help them with only the Belgians against them if they come before us we will have a hot now them for as Nelson said time when Russia France & England expects that every man will do his duty + we hope to plant the Union Jack where the Black Eagle now flies

Then when all is settled, all can rest assured Ireland will have Home Rule, she must have it after the way she stands by England in the time of need. And now before I finish I hope to see you all soon again but if I do happen to be one of the unlucky ones, I hope to have the pleasure of killing at least 6 Germans before I die then I would die contented

I must say good bye now hoping to hear from you soon. I will write when I can. Remember me to all
