Statement by Mrs Mary Anderson, 28 Walbeck St. Belfast.

The late soldier was home on furlough for the last time at Christmas 1914 for about 7 days. It was during this time that he stated his intentions regarding his effects but I cannot quote the exact date. He was at home in 28 Walbeck St when the statement was made.

The words he used were as follows, as nearly as my memory serves me:—
"If anything happens to me, I have to go to my mother."
My sister, Mrs Darby 28 Walbeck St was present + heard the conversation. My mother was also present herself.
