you days as days
If it is a thing
that any thing happens
me as I hope their work I am leaving you
my will as I no
that you would rather have my self than all the money in the world
when it is over
we are getting weeke part and
and a new bit
as I hope I will live to spend it
with you now
Dear Mother all
I have to say
is God Bless you
and all at home
don't forget to tell Tom and Mary
and all at home
best wishes for them Dear Mother
don't forget But with the 90 Co 9910 1914

my dear mother I must be the last letter that you will get from me as we are the first Brigade
to go out the finest
is hearing confession
in the Doon to night
so dear mother will
you say a pray for me as I think it will be a bad war it
would make you long
to see all them
mothers up at the gate of every night
