Tell Julia she is not playing the game with me she must have forgotten me altogether. But never mind it can't be helped. she has given up writing to me. even the paper that was sent out to me she was to try to drop a line in it. Dear Mother you need not send me any more things out only a few lines letting me know how you are getting on but if it is to much trouble for Julia to write let my Father do it.

Dear Mother I am receiving the paper alright every week and I am very thankful to you for it also I am very sorry to see Father knocked about so much but let him not fret as it will all come out right in the end and we will have a good time of it together please God (Roll on) Dear Mother I have left you nine pence a day from to day so I hope you will get it alright and you know yourself if any thing happens to me you will receive all I have to get. Dear Mother
