Dear Sir

In reply to your letter of the 18 May regarding the disposal of the effects of above in case of his death. I beg to inform you that the statement referred to was made by deceased on the 5th September 1915 (~~called on~~) at the residence of his sister, Mrs O'Keefe 11 Spa Terrace Mallow to which I called on him with reference to assigning a policy of Insurance that he had on his life to his sister Mrs O'Keefe, and the remark he made was, I don't know is there any necessity of assigning Policy, as I have already made a will leaving everything to my sister Mrs O'Keefe, he also remarked that the Will was in the possession of the War Office. The names of the other parties
