My Brother 9657 Pte Patrick Mulrooney 1st Connaught Rangers made the following statement in my presence at the house of my Brother in Law Thomas O'Mahoney at the Butts Green Parish of St Canice City of Kilkenny on or about the 18th September 1915 he said to my sister Mrs Ellen O'Mahoney on the evening before he returned to France of leave well I am going to make my will in your favour as soon as I get back and anything that I have is yours as you were as good as my mother since she died and again at the Railway station at Kilkenny he said if anything happens to me I hope you will have no trouble in getting anything that I possess and the only other person present was my Brother in law Thomas O'Mahoney and his wife Ellen O'Mahoney my sister this is the exact statement to the best of my belief as far as my memory serves me
