Dear Sir
just a few lines hoping you are all well at home as I am myself well I am going out next
at Saturday morning
we will be in Belgium at 12 o'clock Sunday
there are a big crowd of us going to Stafford and Driller is with me to Driller is a very dangerous he is a great character he was plugging for money they all had him around ask Martin about him
they are a lot of the going out two in the draft

well we are all in great spirit mad to get at the germans dont write no more til I write I yl send a note saying about a cable I give the address Belgium well mother
I lie back for my Pmas Dinner with ye so ye need not be fretting remember me to all the boys and make ye go to the
them I cant say to do any but I made ye well
to dad so if ye see any thing coming to hand dish home I did not come here yet I want see now I hope to see ye good bye I love ye all always Michael
always put my number
on the letters
