Dear Mrs Young

I received your letter alright and the envelopes they are the most useful thing I know they are very hard to get out here as for anything happening me if there is anything I have to leave can go to my mother I dont see the use of making a will for all the money I have to leave you can see that she gets it I dont think anything will happen to me if I can help it my adress in future is A Coy 12 R I Rif B E 7 nothing more to be used. I hope every body is in good health and Mr Young I hope he is well I remain yours truly John Grant.
