In re Last Will of Pte R. Irwin 1st B. Irish Fus.

15 MAY 1917

I, Thos. Lennox of Bridge St. Castledawson, hereby certify that Pte R. Irwin, 1st Batt. R. Irish Fusiliers, made the following statement to me on 7th Sept. 1915: "Uncle, I may be killed & if so I want you to know that I have between £8 & £9 to my credit in Army accounts. I want you to see that my mother gets this & anything else belonging to me, should I fall"

(Signed) Thos. ^{His} Lennox _{mark}

Witnesses Certificates:

I, H.A. Macaulay, Schoolmaster, Moyola School, Castledawson, certify that the above statement, signed in my presence, is, in my opinion, a true statement of fact. My conversations with the deceased soldier on his last leave from the front, would bear out the above.

H.A. Macaulay,

I have reason to believe that the signed statement of Thos. Lennox, above, represents the wishes & intentions of the soldier named.
