Dearest Lillie

I received your letter & cigarettes just now and was delighted to hear from you and to know everybody is alright. I received the pair of gloves safely last week, tell Jim I had no paper to answer him it is a scarce commodity out here and we cannot carry a store of it as it gets wet. I sent you 2 £ through the War Office today for Christmas I hope you will get it. I would send some myself direct but we have not got paid (only 4/2 since we landed here so we are living the simple life) Well on till I go home maybe that is what you miss wait much longer. I have got so much. But I will rectify all no news at present. I hope you that when I come home. Things will get that couple of luid out here are going on ~~there~~ alright. There is nothing you just as usual one day just like could send me as we have to then one but we are getting the enough to carry at present best of them gradually. I did but you might give the kids not send that fellow to see something for me so as they Mc urtagh but he often saw me wont forget me. I must now with him so I suppose he thought conclude with kindest love it would be as good to give some to yourself Jim & an Ted & Jack news of me. Tell Georgie if he Georgie (white eye) and the remainder of Kitchener's I remain ever Army does not soon come out Your Loving Brother we will have to beat the Willie Germans ourselves as we cant and I will be able to clear up that Debt of honour with Guinness anyhow if I do not come through you will get what I have but with Gods help I will get back safe never to leave Cald 51 again, tell Fand I was very glad to get her letter also Jed's Postcard The weather is very cold and wet out here at present. I received a parcel from Murtagh last week Flags, Gloves, Knife, and a baby Powder I have written to thank him I have not written to Mr. Flavelle yet but will do so first opportunity You complain about having no friends so I see you must miss me, I would like to be back having a fight with you again
