Dear Mother

I line to let you know I got your last letter all right and Uncle Pat's he can write as well as ever you said I mistook the O. Donell. you were speaking about. I knew the man you meant well. When I was leaving I heard nothing about making any allowance all we were told to do was to make a will I made that in Favour of you willed you every thing if any thing happened we were the first to leave for the front. the order came out after wards about.

PS

I got two letters from Susie you can tell her I got them all right and was thankful to her for what she sent me. I do not know what address to put on her letters and another thing I would not know how to write them. Properly you can tell her I quite believe what she told me making allowance. I heard nothing about the money you are getting weekly either.

I am getting up a while every night now but not too strong 7 weeks in bed puts a change in a persons body I have got no more to say at present.

your son P. Slowey
